Elderly Persons Housing: Status quo - inflationary rent increases + general rate

Let us know why: The housing should only be available to people who need help so we should keep rents low.

What do you think about our plans for our other projects and activities?: No need to spend 3.3 million on Baring Square East. I'm not happy the budget for the civic centre has gone up because we were told the figure had been inflation proofed as the council had learned it's lesson from the art gallery. We need to have an organic waste collection.
